

INTERNSHIP – A Stepping Stone To Your Future

The Firm of Choice

OPPORTUNITIES KNOCKING...

Due to increasing competition in today's job market, it is crucial to build your resume with relevant experience before you graduate college. An internship provides you with excellent opportunities to build the skills needed to stay competitive and allows you to explore career opportunities. White, Nelson & Co. strongly believes in the importance of internships. We have developed accounting and tax internship programs that help students gain hands-on experience in public accounting. In reality, an internship is the start of your career.

White, Nelson & Co. offers a unique and diverse opportunity for undergraduate junior and senior level students, who are interested in a career with a contemporary Certified Public Accounting & Business Consultancy firm. Internships are planned during the months of January to May to maximize your exposure to client-oriented work. However, many of our interns work year round and are brought on as junior staff accountants upon graduation. We offer internships in auditing and tax to help you focus your eventual career in public accounting.
